

Dear, Intranet Services
Attention: Sawan & Hasit,

I'm writing this letter of appreciation as a thank you for the fast and efficient services given to me regarding the building and completion of my website, teamvictorious.com.

Your company did a phenomenal job referencing the graphics and placement of the information needed. Not only did you fulfill all of my requests, more importantly, you completed each project in a timely manner, which is important to any customer.

As an artist and owner of any successful company, I believe the little things are what matter the most. Intranet Services pays great attention to the details involved in the job at hand and will deliver with quality service.

I refer Intranet Services to anyone who wishes to us use their services.

Sincerely,
Nick Johnson, Artist/President
