Dear Sawan,

We would like to thank you for developing the site of our company. We have got very positive response from our potential customer world wide

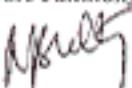

In the first week itself we got 100 hits on our websites, which we have converted into orders.

We would also like to thank you for marketing of our website on the top search engine and placing the company on first five company related to our product.

Kindly continue the good work on marketing of our website, so that we can get more enquiries. Please also keep us updated on the new software, so that we can continue to improve our web site.

Thanking You

Yours Faithfully
